

The REVELATION of JESUS CHRIST
ALPHA / OMEGA

*Session 32 — The Song of Moses and of the Lamb
[Revelation 15] — October 3, 2021*

- I. God has blessed us with the gift of song to unite, uplift, and comfort us both in this life and beyond in the life to come.
- II. As the end draws near, God's righteous anger will begin to burn hotter as He pours out the final 7 plagues upon the Beast and his kingdom.
- III. Once God's anger has reached a boiling point, Jesus will explode on the scene in wrath and break out upon the ungodly as an all -consuming fire.
- IV. The song of Moses celebrates God's victory over Pharaoh, yet it ultimately points to God's final triumph when Jesus returns to destroy the Beast and save His people!

Application —

- ➔ May the LORD forever be our strength and our song, as He alone is worthy of praise both in times of sorrow and joy!
- ➔ Do not underestimate the power and blessing of corporate worship, as we unite as one voice to proclaim the gospel of Christ!

Small Group Listening Guide — October 3, 2021

Read Revelation 15 Out Loud

1. How does God use the gift of song to unite, uplift and comfort us?
2. What are some worship songs God has used in your life to carry you through difficult times or remind you of His promises?
3. How should we understand God's "wrath" or anger in this passage, considering John uses the Greek word thumos instead of orge? [note — thumos means to get worked up in anger, while orge is the final expression of built-up wrath]
4. What is the primary expression associated with God's "orge" wrath in 2 Peter 3:7-12 and 2 Thessalonians 1:5-8?
5. What are the most obvious connections between Moses and Jesus, especially when it comes to the prophetic patterns of the Exodus and the coming Day of the LORD?
6. Read Zephaniah 3:14-18. How will Jesus respond on the Day He triumphs in victory?
